The Herzl Institute invites applications for a week-long conference on Jewish-Christian alliance. This conference aims to lay the groundwork for an alliance of Christians and Jews working together to restore the civilization of the West through a revitalized encounter with our founding traditions, texts and ideas.

This conference will focus on issues such as:

- ◆ The Bible and the modern Western political order
- ◆ Is Western democracy in decline?
- ◆ Obstacles to Christian-Jewish collaboration
- ◆ The standing of the Bible in public life
- ◆ The place of Israel in the Mideast and in our world
- ◆ What would Western renaissance look like?
- ◆ Toward a new Jewish-Christian agenda

Speakers will include:

- Jeff Ballabon Iron Dome Alliance
- Fr. Barry Bercier Assumption College
- David Brog Maccabee Task Force
- Patrick Deneen University of Notre Dame
- David Goldman Asia Times
- Yoram Hazony The Herzl Institute
- Yechiel Leiter 3H Global
- Gerald McDermott Beeson Divinity School
- Tricia Miller Committee for Accuracy in Middle East Reporting
- Robert Nicholson Philos Project
- Russell Reno First Things
- R. Mitchell Rocklin Tikvah Fund
- Greg Thornbury The King's College
